

WASHINGTON POST
AND TIMES HERALD

APR 6 1964

Charles R. Garity, 54, CIA Aide for 12 Years

Charles R. Garity, 54, an executive with the Central Intelligence Agency, died yesterday of heart failure at Georgetown Hospital.

Born in Hoboken, N.J., Mr. Garity was graduated from Columbia University, taking his bachelor's degree in business administration.

From 1940 to 1946, he saw service in the Army in the South Pacific, returning to civilian life after promotion to lieutenant colonel.

Mr. Garity

Mr. Garity had been with the CIA for 12 years at the time of his death.

A past commander of the American Legion National Cathedral Post, he also was a former president of the Ushers Society of St. James Catholic Church in Falls Church.

He leaves his wife, Mary, of the home address, 201 Poplar dr., Falls Church; three sons, Charles Jr. and Donald, of the home address, and James, 120 Greenwood dr., Falls Church; four daughters, Mrs. William Albeck, of 3404 13th st. se., and Loretta, Mary Louise and Eileen, of the home address; his mother, Loretta Garity, of Jersey City, N.J., three sisters and a brother.

CPYRGHT